STEWARDSHIP BY THE BOOK

STEWARDSHIP

POTENTIAL

A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

This weekend we participate in the proclamation of the passion and death of Jesus according to the Gospel of Mark. In the extended version of this weekend’s Gospel reading, Jesus is at Gethsemane, praying to his Father, in much emotional distress. He knows he can save himself. He can escape over the Mount of Olives in the dead of night and make his way safely into the Judean desert. Instead, Jesus chooses obedience to his Father and waits for his persecutors. As Saint Paul puts it in the second reading, Jesus is “obedient to the point of death.” Jesus’ obedience is a lesson for those who are good stewards of their life in Christ. Let us reflect on how we might be more obedient to the will of God instead of our own will.

Baptisms:

Sophia Nicole Guzman

Today we celebrate Palm Sunday. As we read about the climax of Christ’s mission here on earth, we are reminded that He is the Perfect Steward, a model for us all on our stewardship journey.

Our First Reading, from the prophet Isaiah, portrays a suffering servant. The suffering servant, in many ways, foreshadows what Jesus endured during His passion. Even though He didn’t deserve such tortures, He humbly submitted to them. His mission as a steward was to fulfill His Father’s mission. We, too, play a unique role in our Father’s mission by bringing souls to Christ. It simply begins with the witness of our lives.

Today’s Gospel shares the account of Jesus’ last days on earth, and how He lives them says a great deal about how we should be living ours as faithful stewards. Jesus does many things in these last days, and they all revolve around prayer and service — two trademark actions of a good and faithful Catholic. He hosts a Passover meal in which He gives us His Body and Blood in the Eucharist. He intensely prays to His Father. Lastly, He submits to humiliation, torture and death for our sake, calling out to God the Father in His weakest moments. We might not be called to the same type of prayer and service, but we are all called to commit time in daily prayer with our Lord, and to serve our families, churches and neighbors.

As we embark on this Holy week, let us take some time to reflect on the life of Christ as He is our model Steward, and may we strive to imitate Him daily.

WORSHIP

MARCH 24, 2024 ~ PALM SUNDAY

Communal Penance

Again, we have 12 to 15 priests coming for confessions this Monday, March 25th at 7:00pm.

We have a short service. We pray the Act of Contrition together. Then we expose the Blessed Sacrament on the altar for the duration of the confessions.

To help you while you are in line for confession, you can follow on the screen points for your examination of conscience. All you need is a sincere heart. Jesus does the rest. He forgives you. Amen

HOLY WEEK

Please do your very best to make this week a truly Holy Week. The daily schedule has been in the bulletin for weeks.

Especially try to come to church on Holy Thursday and Good Friday. Then Easter Sunday will be all the more meaningful and joyful.

Rice Bowls

If not done already, please bring back your Rice Bowl with your donation for World Hunger—asap.

Presentation of The Last Supper

All Things New Production returns to Blessed Trinity with a presentation of the Last Supper in the Parish Hall on Palm Sunday, March 24th after the 7:10am, 8:45am, 11:00am, and 1:00pm (Spanish) Masses. Come and sit at a Passover table just like the one Christ sat at with His friends, and then come up to the "upper room" to witness a live tableau of the Last Supper. This will be an immersive and meditative experience to prepare your hearts and minds for the Holy Week. For questions, please email kiarafelicio@allthingsnewproductions.com

Our Catholic Appeal

We have responses now from 538 families. Thank you for your donations/pledges which have enabled your parish, Blessed Trinity, to meet its assessment of $241,454. Whatever we get over and above our assessment will help sick or retired priests (1/3) and our parish ministries (2/3).

We are still hoping for a response from the rest of our parishioners. We will send out letters next week to all who have yet to respond.

We have a great parish. Your positive responses not only help countless people with various spiritual and health needs but also your own spiritual journey and your parish and your diocese.

International Picnic—March 17

God gave us glorious weather.

All had seats under the big tents for Mass.

The 18 countries who took part did us proud.

Most all of their delicious foods from their native countries, was devoured.

It was a very colorful day. Our parish is truly Catholic—universal—in so many ways.

Thanks to all our parish council members and countless others who organized and took part in this our 2nd annual parish picnic.

God blesses us in so many ways and He truly blessed us March 17th which just happened to be St. Patrick’s Day. But green was not the most stand out color.

God bless all your big efforts.

What is Fair Trade? “Fair Trade is a trading partnership, based on transparency and respect that seeks greater equity in international trade. It contributes to sustainable development by offering better trading conditions to, and securing the rights of, marginalized producers (farmers) and workers”. For 20 years we have been selling Fair Trade coffee, tea, cocoa, and olive oil the second weekend every month.

We are in need of an individual or individuals to coordinate and continue this worthy program which gives small family farmers and their cooperatives, in Latin America, India, Asia, Africa, and Palestine, a fair profit for their products. The farmers use sustainable, regenerative, organic agricultural methods without the use of toxic pesticides. The farmers protect and improve forest cover and habitat for migratory birds and other wildlife through shade farming. This also preserves local river quality. Their knowledge and farming practices are helping restore and preserve our planet.

Could God possibly be calling you to coordinate this worthy program to improve people’s lives and protect our environment? I’m available to help in any way. Please call Joe Sowa at 352-615-7240.

UPCOMING BAKE SALE

Calling all our Uganda supporters. The weekend of April 6/7, we will be holding a Bake Sale after all Masses.

Please bring your contributions either to the church office on Friday, April 5th, or to our table on Saturday afternoon before the 4:00pm Mass, or before any of the Sunday morning Masses.

Thank you

Col 3:1-4

Jn 20:1-9

We are inviting all of your church members to participate in a special Earth Care Workshop and Fair on Saturday, April 13 from 10am to 3:30pm. Two workshops, discussions and tours of the grounds and facilities are scheduled from 10:30am-12:30pm and 1:30pm-3:30pm. Workshops and discussions will last about one hour followed by an optional one hour tour of our Florida friendly garden, sanctuary and fellowship hall. Everyone is encouraged to stay around to visit other activities such as our plant clinic, recycling/upcycling clothing display and fashion show, wildlife mural tour, children’s activity table, and tables staffed by area conservation organizations. A light lunch will be served.

We know that other faiths are working as we are to care for God’s creation. This gathering provides an opportunity for other area churches and places of worship to learn about what actions we have taken and share what they have done.

You may not know, but the Blessed Trinity bus makes various stops on Sunday mornings to pick up people and bring them to the 11:00am Mass.

In order to keep up this ministry, we need some help! If you have a clean driving record (no special license needed) and are fingerprinted (or can be), and are available some Sundays for the 11:00am Mass, we would love to have you!

Please call Julie Cyrulinski at 352.875.9856 with any questions.

Retrouvaille

If your marriage has become troubled and stressed, unloving or uncaring; if you have grown cold and distant; even if you are divorced or separated, or are thinking about it, Retrouvaille can help, as it has helped thousands of others. Our next program begins in Winter Park, San Pedro Center, April 4-6, 2024. For more information and registration call 352.274.4614. All calls and names held in strictest confidence.
