Today, we celebrate the Resurrection of Christ! Our readings today reveal how we can live out the joy of Easter all year long in our day-to-day lives.

Our Gospel portrays the third day after Jesus' death when Mary of Magdala visits Jesus' tomb. Once she saw the stone removed, she ran to tell Simon Peter and John. They ran to the tomb as well, and upon seeing, they believed. We can tell the relationship that these disciples had with Jesus because of the way they responded about Him — they "ran." Mary didn't see the empty tomb and think, "someone else will figure it out." Peter and John didn't hear the news and think, "I will check on it later." They each responded with conviction as they "ran" for Jesus.

We must ask ourselves, "Do I have a relationship with Christ to the point where I am running to Him each day?" The way these disciples responded is how we should respond to Christ. We must avoid complacency, and as intentional disciples, we must stop rationalizing our choices by telling ourselves we will someday get around to putting God first. Every moment throughout our day is an opportunity to respond to God in gratitude, compassion and eagerness. And although there will be moments when we do not "feel" like responding to Him, it is in those moments when we faithfully respond anyway that matters the most.

Let us celebrate this glorious day with prayer and feasting, for Christ is risen! And let us strive to carry this Easter joy with us all year long by how we respond to Christ each day. Happy Easter!

Our Catholic Appeal

The letters have gone out to all parishioners we have not received a response for "Our Catholic Appeal".

It is most important that you are included. It does not have to be a major commitment on your part—just a response with some donation.

The % of people in our parish who do respond is much lower than most parishes in our diocese. Over all, the ones who have responded have been most generous. They are carrying the responsibility for the majority.

I believe I have a responsibility, as your priest, to inform you that the OCA appeal is not an option for Catholics who live their Catholic faith and truly want to share in the total mission of the Catholic church. I do not worry about it. I just want to make sure I have done my job of letting all our parishioners know that OCA is a vital part of our Catholic faith. Thanks.

Lent / Easter Thanks

Our parish is very thankful for all our parishioners who helped the parish celebrate Lent and Easter. Apart from all our volunteers who take part in one of the ministries at Mass—such as lectors; church decorators; readers; ministers of the eucharist; altar servers; musicians; choirs; video operators; etc.—we want to recognize our priest confessors, adorers, Friday fish fry workers, Wednesday soup meal workers, RCIA teachers and candidates and catechumens, religious education teachers and staff.

It takes a city, more than a village! Thank you all.

Thank you

A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

Jesus Christ has risen today! For those good stewards of their faith who die with Jesus, they rise with Christ their savior every day. They are an Easter people. Our Savior is active, alive, and transforming us and our communities of faith, even the world, at this very moment. Easter is a time of joy, a time of celebration. To have faith in the risen Lord is also to believe that we are disciples who bear witness to Christ in a broken and troubled world. To be good stewards of this faith obliges us to be living witnesses to Christ's peace at home and in public. Jesus cannot be found buried in some long forgotten time, in some far away land. He is risen. He lives within each one of us. Alleluia!

SAINTLY QUOTES ON THE EUCHARIST

"This bread is bread before the words of the Sacrament. But when the words of Christ come to it, it is the body of Christ ... Before the words of Christ, it is a cup full of wine and water. When the words of Christ become operative, the blood which has redeemed the people is caused to be there."

-St. Ambrose
