NEW PARISHIONERS ARE WELCOME to stop by the Church Office to register Monday through Friday 8:00am to 5:00pm or online at www.blessedtrinity.org, click on join us.

BAPTISM: We are pleased to help your family prepare for the special event of your child's entrance into our faith community. To help parents and godparents prepare, a class (English) is held the 2nd Tuesday of each month at 7:30pm in the Community Center and in Spanish the 2nd Saturday of each month at 9:00am at Guadalupana. Parents and Godparents must attend this class prior to scheduling baptism.

MARRIAGES: If you are planning to be married at Blessed Trinity, your preparation process should begin at least four (4) months prior to desired date. We look forward to helping you during your time of engagement and preparation for the vocation of Christian marriage. Call the Church Office for an appointment with one of our priests.

SICK CALLS AND HOSPITAL VISITS: If you or a family member are in a local hospital or homebound and would like to receive Communion or Sacrament of the Sick, please call the Church Office at 629.8092 or Sister Juliet at x3211. When registering at the hospital, put your name on the Catholic List.

STEWARDSHIP BY THE BOOK

Adam and Eve were banished from the garden because of their disobedience. But Jesus says in today's Gospel that when we are obedient to God's will—when we use our gifts to serve one another—we are part of His family. "Whoever does the will of God is brother and sister and mother to me." This is the gift, and fruit, of Baptism.

LIVESTREAMING

Please be advised that the Mass is being filmed, broadcast, and/or videotaped, including audio recording. Your attendance at Mass constitutes your consent to these recordings, and to the use of the recordings by the church for public communications, social media, evangelization, and other business or religious purposes. God bless and thank you for attending Mass at Blessed Trinity Catholic Church.

STEWARDSHIP

POTENTIAL

A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

In today's second reading Saint Paul argues that a community's journey of faith culminates in the thanksgiving expressed in the Eucharistic meal, when the bread is broken, the cup of salvation is lifted up and the covenant with Christ is affirmed. In fact, he maintains that the entire community's "inner nature" is constantly being renewed in hope through this thanksgiving meal. Good stewards understand that the weekly celebration of the Eucharist is a communal gesture by which the gathered community reveals its faith and hope in the risen Lord. Moreover, that it is a profound communal act of faith that Christ is present and active in the world at this moment. Given that understanding, what responsibilities do we take on to lift up the faith of our community? What part do we play in giving it hope.

STEWARDS OF THE WEEK

All the Rosary Makers

We would like thank you all for using so much of your time, talent making rosary's that are distributed to not only our parish but many parish's all over the country as well as internationally!

Thank you for being faithful stewards!

New Parishioners:

Deanna Smith

Baptisms:

Everly Grace Forrest

Liam Ian Vega

Jeremiah Salonga Young

In today's First Reading from the Book of Genesis we hear the story of Adam and Eve and their sins, defying God. However, when God was present in the garden, the man and woman hid themselves. Adam responds to God's question why in part by saying "I was afraid... so I hid myself." Did he, do any of us really think he could hide from God?

As children many of us may have hidden from a parent when we did something wrong, and it was in violation of some specific order we had received. Our efforts to hide what we did and to hide ourselves were probably no more effective than Adam's.

As humans we know the temptation of following our own plans, even if they are contrary to God's. We think we know better, and we may try to still have it our way. If what we have done is particularly shameful, we may try to hide our sins from God.

The sincere truth is that we cannot hide from God any more than Adam and Eve could. Psalm 139 declares, "Where can I hide from your spirit (God's)? From your presence where can I flee? If I ascend to the heavens, you are there; if I lie down in Sheol (the place of the dead) you are there, too. If I say, 'Surely darkness will hide me'... Darkness is not dark for you."

What are we hiding from? In recent weeks we have learned over and over how much God loves us. It is time for us to accept that and not hide.

PEACE & SOCIAL JUSTICE

Your purchase of Fair Trade coffee, tea, cocoa & olive oil help small family farmers in Asia, Africa, India, South America and Palestine earn a fair compensation for their products, establish community cooperatives and help the environment since the farmers use non-chemical organic farming. We sell Drip Coffee---Columbian, Ethiopian, Mind Body and Soul, Breakfast Blend, French Roast, and Decaf---Whole Bean Coffee---Columbian, French Roast and Breakfast Blend---Tea---Green, English Breakfast and Irish Breakfast---Dark Cocoa and Hot Cocoa---Olive Oil. These products will be available for you to purchase after Mass this weekend. Thank You.

THANK YOU!

Thank you for all those who donated items to the Uganda Sidewalk Sale.

Thank you to all who assisted us in making this event a success.

A special thank you to our youth stewards: Charlotte Pierce, Henry Wheeler, Gavin Seaton and Misho Seaton who worked numerous hours.

$4,538.32 was raised to purchase books for students at our mission school in Nalwejo, Uganda.

WORSHIP

JUNE 9, 2024 ~ TENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Facilities Calendars

It's that time of year again to submit your calendar request for meeting locations. ALL ministries and organizations need to submit a calendar for July-Dec 2024 indicating the name of the organization/ministry, the facility requested, starting and ending times and name and phone number of the contact person making the request. Calendars will be available in the church office. Please return the completed calendars to the church office, attention Melinda Gunn.

ORPHANS NEED HELP

Our Lady of Mercy Children's Home (orphanage) in our sister parish in Uganda has 56 orphans. Last year through the parish bulletin I asked for sponsors for these orphans. We were blessed to get all of the orphans sponsored for $250 each for the year. That money covered their room and board at a local school—Ascension Catholic. It also covered their education for the year.

So, once again, I am hoping to get 56 sponsors at $250 per sponsor, to feed and educate an orphan for the coming year.

Let me know or Katherine in the church office, if you can be one of those sponsors.

God bless, Fr. Pat

June is Vacation Bible School month at Blessed Trinity

Please pray for our students, volunteers and teachers at the parish, La Guadalupeana, Christ the King and the missions teams in Uganda and the Covenant Mission Team in Costa Rica.

Our heavenly patrons for VBS are St. Therese of Lisieux, who promised to spend her heavenly time doing good on earth and servant of God, Nicolino d'Onofrio, a little known Italian religious whose 60th anniversary is on Wednesday, June 12. Nicolino was training to be a priest in the order of the Servants of the Sick when at the age of 18 he began a three year battle with cancer which, after much suffering, took his life.

Saving Mercy—Donations Needed

Saving Mercy is renovating several motel rooms and has an immediate need for the following new or gently used items:

Beds with mattresses, boxsprings and rails

Dressers, nightstands, lamps, area rugs

Faucets for sink and shower, shower curtains

Ceiling lights

Towels, bed sheets, mattress pads, pillows

Soap (pump variety), shower gels

Shampoo and conditioners.

Please contact Saving Mercy at 352-362-0126 to coordinate the delivery or pickup of any large items.

Angels' Prayer for our VBS students during the month of June

This year we are inviting the whole parish community to support the three Vacation Bible Schools that will be held in June at the parish, La Guadalupeana Mission and Christ the King. The parish VBS is from June 10-14 in the mornings; La Guadalupeana will meet on each Friday afternoon in June and Christ the King will meet in the afternoons of June 24-30. We also include the children who will be taught by members of our Uganda mission team alongside local catechists in the latter half of the month of June. Printed cards in English and Spanish text of the Angels' Prayer are available this weekend at the back of church.

LORD JESUS,
OUR GOOD SHEPHERD
You laid down your life that we might have life.
You told us to bring our children to you for you to bless them.
Open their minds and hearts to the mystery of Your Everlasting love.
Inspire them with your Wisdom.
Sanctify them in your Truth.
Give them courage to follow You for You alone are the Way,
the Truth and the Life.
Unite us all into one family who are baptized into the One faith
by the power of The Holy Spirit.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit
As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be,
World without end. Amen
Mary, our Mother. Pray for us.
St Therese of Lisieux, pray for us
Servant of God Nicolino d' Onofrio, pray for us.

NEED HELP??

"Prayer and Action" is coming to Ocala July 7-12. We will be sending teams of teens and adults out into the community to do service projects. If you are elderly or low income and have some yard work or other projects that could use some help, please contact Marianne Geddings at 352.875.7456 to apply for help that week.

School/Orphanage of The Immaculate Heart of Mary in El Salvador

Recently Dr. Meehan visited the school which has fifty children from single parent families and twenty orphans who are resident at the school, which is run by ten Carmelite sisters and volunteers. The school receives no funding from either the government or church: it is dependent completely on God's providence through donations. Later this year we are hoping to sponsor the twenty orphans who are in the care of the sisters. For more information, please contact Dr. Meehan at the parish.

Perpetual Adoration

The following hours need to be filled:

Tuesdays: 1:00am - 2:00am

Thursdays: 8:00am - 9:00am

Fridays: 5:00am - 6:00am

Our stewardship way of life here at BT encourages each family to commit one hour a week to the adoration chapel; please prayerfully consider this ministry’s needs and if you are unable to serve, please pray that God will send individuals to sustain this core ministry, here at Blessed Trinity.

The Lord looks forward to your visit!

Please see the list of hours, which is in the vestibule, on the counter near the staircase, that need one more adorer.

For your special hour of praise before the Blessed Sacrament call or email: Carol Blackstock 352-622-7348 or 352-425-8638, carolblackstock@gmail.com.

“People ask me: ‘What will convert America and save the world?’ My answer is prayer. What we need is for every parish to come before Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament in Holy Hours of prayer.”

Stewardship of Christian Marriage

Traditionally, June is the month for weddings. Like so much about marriage these days, that’s changing as other months gain in popularity. Nevertheless, it’s nice to pause during the beautiful month of June and celebrate the blessings and gifts of Christian marriage.

Sure, it’s easy to point to the challenges to marriage today: the discouraging divorce rate, the incredible busyness of family life, the high percentage of children born out of wedlock, the large numbers who live together without the commitment of matrimony, the economic challenges facing families.

But despite the trials of marriage, it’s good to remember that for the Christian steward, nothing beats a great marriage as a vehicle for love and grace and growth. What makes marriage wonderful?

A good Christian marriage, a wise pundit once said, should be like a fire around which others gather to warm themselves. Partners in a sacramental marriage feed and nurture each other’s spirituality, and as a team reach out to a world in need of their example. A Christian marriage is an oasis in a world of impermanence. It’s a home and a refuge, a place where spouses and their children grow in faith and wisdom and grace. A good marriage is a place where two people can feel comfortable with each other through the shifting sands of time. It’s a safe abode where aging is accepted and nurtured. It’s the porch light that awaits your arrival back home, the smile that greets you at the end of a weary day. A good Christian marriage is the workshop of forgiveness, the laboratory of fidelity.

St. Benedict, trusting that God was always ready to forgive, said “Always, we begin again.” That could be the motto of marriage. I’m here to stay. We start again now. We begin again, and again and again, through difficult times and happy ones, through sickness and health, prosperity and poverty.

The church, understanding the challenges faced by those who embrace this sacrament, offers many days of reflection, retreats, and marriage encounters to help strengthen marriage and keep it sustainable. The good steward knows that there must be a stewardship of marriage. The commitment must be nurtured. Take time during June to do something special with our spouse. Devote time and energy exclusively to the relationship, whether it’s a weekend retreat, a romantic getaway, or a special, relaxed evening out.

During June, begin again.
