Our Gospel today conveys how we are called to imitate Jesus through humility and service.

We are reminded that the Son of God became man and surrendered His life into the hands of men so that we might be saved. The life of Jesus was centered around His Father's mission and the service of mankind. And this is how we ought to live — in imitation of Christ.

James and John wanted to ensure they had a spot in heaven with Jesus. They were concerned about themselves in that moment — "Grant that in your glory we may sit one at your right and the other at your left."

Jesus quickly reminded them, "whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all."

Our culture constantly encourages us to do what we can to get ahead in this world, to do what feels good, no matter the effects — that power, authority, and wealth should be our goals in life.

Our faith offers us something different and fulfilling — a life of humility and service. As Christian stewards, we are called to live our lives in service of God and neighbor, just as Jesus did. Our life is not about us. It is about fulfilling God's glorious plan for each one of us.

So, we must ask ourselves, are we living out God's plan for our lives? Is my life centered on Christ and those around me or is it centered on me?

It can be difficult to know God's plan for our entire life. He sees the whole picture — we only see the now. All we can do is seek Him daily. If each day is centered on Him, then our entire lives will become the work of Jesus.

CHARISMATIC RENEWAL

-What's In The Name?

Charismatic: is a Divinely conferred gift or power. Renewal: is to make like new, restore to freshness.

The Charismatic Renewal is a gift from God for today's Church, bringing Restoration & Freshness. It is God's invitation to rediscover our true identity: as children of the Father; witnesses of Christ; & vessels of the Holy Spirit—that we may be branches which bear fruit of the Blessed Trinity!

In embracing his Holy Spirit, we find our lives being lived out with His Power & Love: Our natural talents can produce super-natural results; our ordinary lives can yield extra-ordinary fruit! This is not just for "super saints." It is our Father's vision to bring ordinary Catholics into his Extraordinary Plan!

BT's charismatic prayer group meets every Thursday, 7-8:30pm, in the Adult Day Care. Call Richard for details, 352-342-2982 or email i2bxtn@gmail.com.

A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

In today's Gospel Jesus teaches his disciples that whoever wishes to be great among them must be a servant, just as he came to be a servant. Today is World Mission Sunday—a reminder of our call to be good stewards of the Gospel and to support those who make evangelization their servant ministry throughout the world. Not to be a servant of the Gospel would be poor stewardship. But how do we serve the Gospel? How do we support others who serve those who have never heard the Gospel or who have chosen to reject the Gospel of Jesus Christ?

Disaster Relief

We are called to assist our brothers and sisters affected by the tremendous destruction caused in July by Hurricane Beryl which severely impacted parts of the Caribbean, the Yucatan Peninsula and the US Gulf Coast. More recently, the devastation from Hurricane Helene continues to unfold in parts of Florida, North Carolina, Tennessee and Georgia. And now, Hurricane Milton. In addition, the impact of other disasters this year throughout the nation and the world, such as wildfires, flooding, tornadoes, and earthquakes, will be long-lasting. We offer our prayers to all the families affected by these disasters and pray for the repose of the souls whose lives were taken.

In solidarity with our brothers and sisters, we will be participating in Disaster Relief 2024, a voluntary collection for the humanitarian, long-term recovery, and church needs arising from these calamities. The funds collected in this special appeal will be used to support the efforts of the official relief agencies of the U.S. Catholic Church, Catholic Charities USA and/or Catholic Relief Services, as they and their local agencies respond to immediate emergency needs such as water, food, shelter, and medical care, and aid in long-term rebuilding and recovery efforts.

We will be participating in this collection on the weekend of October 26-27. Special envelopes will be in the pews.

We thank you in advance for your generosity .

Autumn: A Time of Recommitment to our Parish

The autumn brings with it, for countless Christian stewards, the clarion call of renewed commitment to a life of stewardship. Our families are the domestic church, but we know that as Catholics, next to our own family, the parish is the place where our church lives and grows and evangelizes.

For many Christian stewards, the fall brings stewardship fairs, witness talks, pledge forms and ministry pleas at our parishes. We hear reports on the financial and social status of our parish. We listen as our friends and fellow parishioners explain what a life of stewardship has meant to their happiness and growth in discipleship. We learn how our parish is making a difference through charity and social justice work. We see how many people contribute to the faith formation of the young, and to the outreach to those who are suffering or to those who have left the faith. Sometimes, we man the ministry booth at the fair, or help make the posters, or agree to chair a committee. Other times, we sit reflectively and ponder what we have to give and how best to do so sacrificially.

At different points in our life, we are able to do more, and sometimes less. Our time and resources ebb and flow. But one thing remains constant: the parish is our home, it is vital to the life of the larger church, and we belong there. It is where we grow in Christ through community and faithfulness. We belong, not just as Sunday morning observers, but as active and conscious participants in the liturgy and life of the parish.

Stewardship and Public Life: Bringing the Good News to all Creation in 2024

With the 2024 presidential election upon us, it is more important than ever for mature Catholics to be mindful of their responsibilities to exercise good stewardship over their neighborhoods, communities and society by participation in the public life of our country.

Jesus said that we, his disciples, are the light of the world. We must not hide that light under a bushel basket (see Matthew 5:16) or in the privacy of our homes or in a church building. We must let it shine so that all men and women can see it. Stewards understand that living out their faith in public life is part of their responsibility to go into the world and proclaim the Gospel to all creation (Mark 16:15); and that their relationship with Jesus Christ and their desire to please him should inform all of their moral decisions, including how they participate in public life and how they vote.

How should stewards exercise their responsibilities as citizens? One way of course, is to inform themselves of the political issues of the day and to vote. Voting is literally the least one can do to promote Gospel values in our communities, state and nation.

Stewards are not found wanting in this vital area of their stewardship. The teachings of the church help us understand our responsibility to make informed choices about issues that concern our society and world, especially as it relates to peace and justice and the most vulnerable of our sisters and brothers.

Stewards commit to prayer, reflection and discussion among others in their community of faith about how to bring the Gospel to public life. They believe in continued conscience formation and conversion, take the teachings of the church seriously, and keep themselves informed on the political issues of the day. Stewards also strive to make prudent choices, vote and encourage others to vote. These are just a few of the ways stewards can help bring the Good News to all creation.
