Our readings this week speak to each of our domestic churches — the little churches that we call our families.

The First Reading from the book of Genesis takes us to the beginning of creation when God made man and woman. When Adam sees the woman he says, "This one, at last, is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh; this one shall be called 'woman.'"

We can almost hear the longing, gratitude, and appreciation in Adam's voice when he meets Eve as he says, "at last." She was a gift because she was an equal partner to him.

This was before the fall of man, meaning sin had not entered the world. Adam and Eve only viewed each other in total acceptance and love.

Our Gospel brings us to life after sin had entered the world — a time that is familiar to us. As the Pharisees questioned Jesus about divorce, He expressed that Moses permitted it because of the hardness of man's heart. However, Jesus was calling them to deeper holiness. He was calling them to restore the original plan God had intended for marriage, "A man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh."

Jesus' words still apply to us here and now in each of our domestic churches. It is the task of families to tirelessly work to restore God's original plan for marriage and family life — homes filled with gratitude, acceptance, and love.

It takes a daily commitment to live out our call to holiness to restore our families to this beautiful image.

A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

In today's Gospel, Jesus teaches us about the sacredness of marriage; a covenant that is a gift from God. Our relationships with our spouses, family, friends, coworkers, and those in our community of faith are all gifts from God. Jesus reminds us today that it is the hardened heart that damages or breaks up relationships. Good stewards understand the holiness of relationships and pray for the love, patience, understanding and kindness necessary to sustain those relationships. Take time out to prayerfully reflect on your relationships this week. Is your stewardship of these relationships as God intended? What relationships need to be healed and reconciled?

Do You Know How To Needlepoint?

I bless quite a few homes. After blessing the entrance door, I or usually a family member, reads a passage, Colossians 3:12-17.

It is a really ideal meditation passage with lots of challenges from God as to how to live the ideal family life.

Many, many times, while conducting these home blessings, I get prompted, by God I assume, "Why don't you give a gift of this scripture passage to the family during each blessing?" I am finally trying to follow that inspiration. So, do you needlepoint? If so call in your name and phone number. I am hoping I can get enough volunteers together who will learn how to stitch this passage in color. If you get it going, I believe we could inspire many families as they highlight Colossians 3:12-17 in their daily living together.

The family might frame the stitched passage or we might get another group of framers. The family hangs it up in the living room where they pray and have family discussions.

Spaghetti Lunch

The Knights of Columbus, Council 16413 at Christ the King, will be hosting a spaghetti lunch on Sunday, October 13 after the morning Mass. Donations are $7.00 per person, the meal includes angel hair spaghetti with a choice of meat sauce or marinara sauce, a small green lettuce salad and garlic bread.

Tickets will be available from any of the Knights of the Council.

Pope Quote

St. John Paul II, in 1979, in an audience with Cardinal Suenens and the International Charismatic Renewal Office, stated "...This is my first meeting with you, Catholic charismatics... I have always belonged to this renewal in the Holy Spirit... I am convinced that this movement is a sign of his action. The world is much in need of this action... Through this action, the Holy Spirit comes to the human spirit, and from this moment we begin to live again, to find our very selves, to find our identity, our total humanity. Consequently, I am convinced that this movement is a very important component in the total renewal of the church, in this spiritual renewal of the church."

Come visit BT's charismatic prayer meeting on Thursdays in the Adult Care center, 7-8:30pm. Call Richard for details, 352-342-2982 or email i2bxtn@gmail.com.

For Life Alliance cordially invites you to attend an unforgettable and awe-inspiring symposium in support of the pre-born on Tuesday, October 8th at St. Patrick Church Social Hall in Gainesville.

Five nationally recognized speakers will embolden and equip you in the fight to protect and defend life! Gain strategies to effectively refute abortion supporters' arguments, and go on offense, in a post-Roe America. Learn how to address the issues of Amendment Four, IVF, abortion pill access and misuse, "my body my right", back-alley abortions, abortion as an alleged "reproductive right" and "healthcare" and much more.

Doors open at 5pm—Promotional tables, door prizes, and an appetizer and dessert bar will be available. The program will run from 6-8pm with a 15-minute intermission. A tour of Circle of Hope, a new pregnancy resource center in Gainesville, will be available immediately following the symposium.

A STEWARDSHIP PRAYER for October

On October 11, 1962, Saint Pope John XXIII prayed the following prayer to open the Second Vatican Council. Thereafter, the bishops at the Council continued to pray this prayer together before every session.

We stand before you, Holy Spirit, conscious of our sinfulness, but aware that we gather in your name.

Come to us, remain with us, and enlighten our hearts.

Give us light and strength to know your will, to make it our own, and to live it in our lives.

Guide us by your wisdom, support us by your power, for you are God, sharing the glory of Father and Son.

You desire justice for all: enable us to uphold the rights of others; do not allow us to be misled by ignorance; or corrupted by fear or favor.

Unite us to yourself in the bond of love and keep us faithful to all that is true.

As we gather in your name may we temper justice with love, so that all our decisions may be pleasing to you, and earn the reward promised to good and faithful servants.

You live and reign with the Father and the Son, God, forever and ever.

Amen.

If we love one another, God remains in us and his love is brought to perfection in us (1 John 4:12).

October 6, 2024

Dear Clergy, Religious Sisters, and Parishioners:

Grace and Peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Today, October 6, we celebrate the gift of the Orlando Diocesan Council of Catholic Women, women whose ministry is a unique treasure in the name of the Lord! The Council of Catholic Women continues to flourish since the establishment of the Diocese of Orlando in 1968. Now, there are thirty-four affiliations within five of the nine counties of the Diocese of Orlando. These beloved women offer selfless service through the works of the Orlando Diocesan Council of Catholic Women; that God's love is brought to perfection. Their yield is healing of heart, mind, and spirit by glorifying the Lord. They bring forth His generous mercy to those whom they encounter and bring the face of God closer to the weary, mournful, and faithless.

Please join me in offering prayers of gratitude for the organization's many members whose humble service cares for the good people of the Diocese of Orlando and beyond. Each member prays for us and models Christ's love that we come to know the prosperity of the favor of God.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend John Noonan
Bishop of Orlando
