STEWARDSHIP BY THE BOOK

"Blessed are they who have not seen and yet believed," Jesus says in today's Gospel. For those who have not seen to believe, however, we must be good stewards of our faith, living it joyfully and sharing it generously. Then, in our time too, "men and women in great numbers" will be "added to the Lord."

LIVESTREAMING

Please be advised that the Mass is being filmed, broadcast, and/or videotaped, including audio recording. Your attendance at Mass constitutes your consent to these recordings, and to the use of the recordings by the church for public communications, social media, evangelization, and other business or religious purposes. God bless and thank you for attending Mass at Blessed Trinity Catholic Church.

STEWARDSHIP

POTLIGHT

A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

In today’s first reading from the Acts of the Apostles we hear it proclaimed that many “signs and wonders” were performed in public by Christ’s followers, a demonstration that produced two results. First, the people of Jerusalem outside the Christian community were awed by what the disciples were performing. And in the midst of all this amazement, many were being converted. Good stewards know of the evangelizing power emanating from their daily acts of love, compassion, kindness and generosity. They believe that if they stay focused on Christ each day, every act has the power to transform a broken world. What “signs and wonders” will we perform today?

STEWARD OF THE WEEK

Mary Marulanda

Elder Care would like to thank Mary for spending so much of her time volunteering with the seniors. She has been a volunteer at Elder Care for over a year and comes faithfully twice a week for 3.5 hours. Mary always has a cheerful spirit. The seniors and staff love working with her!

Thank you for being a faithful steward!

Today, the Second Sunday of Easter, is Divine Mercy Sunday. Our Gospel reading from St. John is often called the story of “Doubting Thomas” but the passage involves so much more than the encounter with the skeptical apostle. It is rich with lessons of Christ’s mercy to all, including an encouraging word from our Lord especially for us, His modern-day disciples.

While Thomas traditionally takes all the bad rap for his doubts, we see that none of the Apostles were at their best when Christ first appeared to them after His resurrection. They were actually in hiding, cowering behind a locked door, paralyzed by fear and doubt.

But Jesus appeared right in their midst in spite of the lock on the door. Was it to rebuke them for their lack of faith? Quite the contrary.

He comes on a mission of mercy. He comes to offer them peace and the restoration of their relationship with Him. And even more, He commissions them to become ministers of His mercy, by giving them authority to forgive sins. At that moment Christ gives to all of us the supreme gift of mercy — the sacrament of Reconciliation. What a precious and powerful gift!

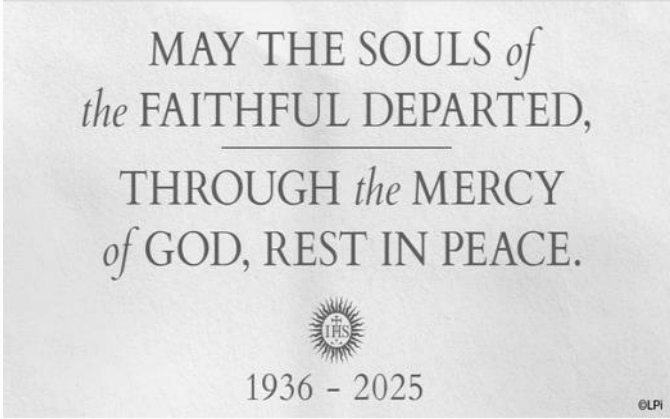

This Sunday is a perfect time to reflect on how well we make use of this gift. Do we really appreciate its healing power? Could we become better stewards of this gift by going to Confession more often? We must also reflect on how well we extend mercy to others as Jesus did to Thomas that day.

Let’s commit ourselves to becoming faithful disciples and stewards of Christ’s mercy. We will be those very ones to whom Jesus gave a “shout out” during His encounter with Thomas: “Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed” — in His merciful love.

APRIL 27, 2025 ~ DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

Living Stations

Life Teen students (14 of them) did a very prayerful and dramatic presentation of the Stations of the Cross—two times on Wednesday of Holy Week—for Blessed Trinity school and for the parish. All who witnessed and prayed at these presentations were inspired and moved to be more involved in the sacrifice of Christ for humanity.

We congratulate the teens and thank them for all their hours of preparation and for their faith filled presentations of the stations.

We advertised the Living Station but next year we will try to do a better job of advertising them for the parish on Wednesday evening.

Easter Thanks

We pray you all rejoiced and are still rejoicing because the Lord is truly risen, Alleluia. And His plan is the same as that of His Father God. That is that all might be saved and enjoy living in the presence of God and His family forever.

Countless people helped us out from Palm Sunday through Holy Week and all the Easter Masses. God bless you all for all your good work—church decorators, deacons, ushers, readers, ministers of the eucharist, choirs, musicians, altar servers, all the priests who helped with confessions, parish staff and maintenance staff. You all play a vital role in the mission God has entrusted us with. Thank you. God will pay you now and later on.

Congratulations!

We congratulate all the 16 adults who received sacraments of initiation at the Easter Vigil Mass. They are:

Carla Ramirez
James Ferguson
Joshua Voorhees
Melanie Flores
Victoria Quiles
Abrielle Arnold
Thomas Sattler
Mike Starling
Tricia Starling
Billy Renfroe
Cole Renfroe
Joey Renfroe
Melanie Carreno
Johnathan Rodriguez
John Niemi
Joe Campise

They are fully and deeply welcome to our parish community. We wish their families the fullness of the spiritual blessings and joys of the Catholic faith.

for the four-session training series

(4/28, 4/29, 5/12, 5/13)

Altar serving is open to any Catholic youth that is entering 4th through 12th grade. Your serving commitment is 1-2 masses per month and additional masses during the busier holiday times. This is a wonderful ministry focused on learning the Mass in detail, while serving at the Altar of Our Lord. This is also a great opportunity for service hours for 8th graders and high schoolers. We look forward to all those youth ready to share their time and talent with our ministry.

We will have a short parent/student meeting on Monday, April 28th at 5:00pm in the church, immediately following the first training session. To reserve your spot, please email btaltarservers@gmail.com to register. Space is limited to 12 students and attendance is required at each of the four sessions. The next training sessions may be offered in October. Also, we request a parent or two to stay with us during the trainings, even if you can only stay for one of the sessions offered (must be fingerprinted, please email us if you can help!). If you want to be an Altar Server, but just cannot make these dates/times, please email us today.

"The eternal Son of God, in His utter transcendence, chose to love each of us with a human heart."
Dilexit nos 60

My Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Today, on this Easter Monday, we arise from our rest at the announcement of the death of our Holy Father, Pope Francis. This holy man led us to the core of our faith, the heart of God. His legacy is always to lead us, as Christ does for us, as our Blessed Mother advocates, as all the saints offer, the treasure of God's love. His challenge to us was to seek things from above, not from this earth. Time and time again, he called us to listen to one another, to open our eyes to the dignity and sacredness of each person, to love one another as Jesus loves us. He asked us to be instruments of the Peace of the Lord, not from an earthly view; but from the extraordinary forgiveness which heals wounds and lays to rest sorrows.

Now, as we pray for the repose of his soul, we also ask God to guide us to extend His tender mercy to one another. We pray that we journey as pilgrims of hope in the Lord all our days. May we be transfigured, as Pope Francis prayed, into tireless cultivators of the seed of the Gospel that heaven and earth become one.

Many of you may ask, 'what is next?' I suggest that Pope Francis would say, 'Do not weep for me. Do not delay in the work of the Lord; rather go forth and be Christ to one another.' Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him. May his soul and all the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend John Noonan
Bishop of Orlando
