STEWARDSHIP

POTENTIAL

A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

Today we celebrate the feast of the Ascension of our Lord, a feast which, in part, celebrates the confidence he placed in his close followers to continue his ministry. In the Gospel reading Jesus reminds his followers of the purpose of his mission, and commissions them to continue his work by proclaiming his word and by living courageously that which they preached. He also promises them the Holy Spirit who he said would strengthen them for the task ahead. As stewards of Jesus’ life and ministry, a good question for us to reflect on this week might be this: Has Christ’s confidence in the quality of our own witness been well placed?

STEWARDS OF THE WEEK

John & Casey Ball

John & Casey have been taking care of all the garden areas in front of Elder Care for over 12 years! They have worked so hard to keep the area looking beautiful!

Thank you for being faithful stewards!

New Parishioners:

Diane, Juan, Nicolas & Olivia DeFusco-Tejada

Diana, Ximena & Gael Hernandez

Shalimar Rivera

Baptisms:

On this Feast of the Ascension, we celebrate Christ’s triumphant return to the Father after perfectly accomplishing His mission on earth. But we also can also view this Feast as a celebration of the “launch day” of our commissioning as Christ’s disciples.

Today’s Gospel draws our attention to the clear instructions that Jesus gave His disciples (and to us) just before ascending to the Father: “Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day and that repentance, for the forgiveness of sins, would be preached in his name to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things.”

Embracing a stewardship way of life, with its emphasis on the use of time, talent and treasure, helps us to live in such a way that our very lives speak as a witness of the Good News of the Gospel. While we take time to reflect and renew our commitments in these three areas annually as a parish family, it is of great benefit to take some time individually throughout the year to take stock of the commitments we have made — looking at both our strengths and our need for continued growth in each area.

On this Feast of our "launch day," take some time to celebrate your victories as Christ’s disciples and renew your commitment to remain faithful to Him and the unique mission He has entrusted to you!

WORSHIP

JUNE 1, 2025 ~ THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD

Beloved Parishioners of Blessed Trinity Catholic Church:

Grace and Peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you! I pray with gratitude for your faithfulness, that by your gift of charity in the Lord's name, you live fully as a member of the body of Christ. Today, I have news to impart; Father William(Bill) Burns, who was ordained to the Priesthood on May 24, will be joining you to serve as your parochial vicar. It is good to share information about him.

Father Burns moved from Massachusetts to Wildwood, Florida with his parents when he was eight years old and they worshipped at St. Lawrence Catholic Church. There, he found community, something especially important when he lost his father at the age of 11.

Feeling a calling to the priesthood but unsure of which path to take, he went to community college after high school and later received a bachelor's degree in religious studies and English from St. Leo College. He imagined he would serve the Church as a layperson. Then he pursued and earned a Master of Theological Studies at Western Jesuit School of Theology in Cambridge Massachusetts, part of Boston College.

Missing home, he returned to Florida and worked at St. Timothy Catholic Church, Lady Lake in 1996 as director of adult education for eight years. In 1998, he married and had his daughter, Sarah Rose, two years later. Eventually, the couple parted, and the marriage was annulled.

When he worked at Trinity Catholic High School, Ocala, several clergy and religious invited him to consider a vocation to the priesthood. He was surprised by the suggestion as he had been married and had a child, but felt he had time to discern as he had to wait until Sarah Rose was old enough and secure in college.

Ultimately deciding to pursue a vocation to the priesthood, his daughter, Sarah Rose, supported his decision. When he was accepted to Pope St. John XXIII National Seminary, Weston, MA, Sarah Rose said, "I want to drive you up there. I want to drop my dad off at college."

Of formation and his priesthood, he noted, "You think of the big 'yes' but sometimes you forget that every day is a 'yes.' And within every day, every hour there are yeses. It's a continual process of growth in Christ."

I know you will welcome Father Burns with grace. You and he will lead each other to know, love, and serve God and journey on with divine love.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Most Reverend John Noonan
Bishop of Orlando

If you would like to receive one of Fr. Bill’s first blessings, he will be available in the parish hall after all the Masses on June 7 & 8.

Stewardship Saint for June

Saint Barnabas

Barnabas comes as close as anyone outside the twelve apostles to being considered an apostle. He is memorialized, in part, for his amazing evangelizing ministry. He was a Jew from Cyprus named Joseph but the apostles affectionately nicknamed him “Barnabas,” which means “son of encouragement.” When he became a follower of Jesus he sold some of his property and donated the proceeds to the apostles (Acts 4:36-37).

Most of what we know about Barnabas is found in the Acts of the Apostles. He befriends Saul (Paul), brings him to the apostles and a very suspicious Jewish community in Jerusalem, and describes for them how on the road Paul had seen the Lord and how in Damascus he had spoken boldly in the name of Jesus (Acts 9:27).

When a Christian community begins to form in Antioch, Syria, Barnabas is sent as the official emissary of the church of Jerusalem to catechize its members. Barnabas and Paul taught there for a year, after which they took collections back to Jerusalem. Later Barnabas and Paul, now seen as charismatic leaders, are sent by the Antioch community to preach to the Gentiles where they enjoyed such enormous success that the people even wanted to offer sacrifice to them as gods.

Barnabas and Paul would attend the assembly in Jerusalem that settled the question of circumcision for Gentile converts (Acts 15; Gal. 2:1-10). Barnabas supported the Gentile Christians who did not see why they should have to be circumcised and observe Jewish dietary laws. The council decided in their favor. When Paul stood up to Peter for not eating with Gentiles for fear of his Jewish friends, he wrote that “even Barnabas was carried away by their hypocrisy” (see Galatians 2:1-13). And even after disagreements caused Paul and Barnabas to part ways for a time, Paul continued to use Barnabas as an example of apostolic behavior (1 Cor. 9:6).

Barnabas is the patron saint of Cyprus. It was there that he established its first Christian community. It was also there, in the Greco-Roman city of Salamis that, according to tradition, he was stoned to death around the year 60. His remains were taken to Constantinople, where a church was built in his honor.

Saint Barnabas is heralded as having a single-minded devotion to Jesus Christ. In Acts 11:24, it is written that he was a man “filled with the Holy Spirit and faith” whose ministry insured that “large numbers were added to the Lord.” His feast day is June 11.

Pope Quote

Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI addressing the participants in a meeting sponsored by “Renewal in the Holy Spirit”:

“Dear friends of Renewal in the Holy Spirit, do not grow weary of turning to Heaven; the world stands in need of prayer. It needs men and women who feel the attraction of Heaven in their life, who make praise to the Lord a new way of life. And may you be joyful Christians! I entrust you all to Mary Most Holy, present in the upper room at the event of Pentecost. Persevere with her in prayer, walk guided by the light of the living Holy Spirit, proclaiming the Good News of Christ.”

Join us every Thursday, 7-8:30pm in the Elder Care center, as we turn our faces to heaven in prayer and praise. For info: Richard at 352-342-2982 or Katy at 352-342-2983 or email i2bxtn@gmail.com
