NEW PARISHIONERS ARE WELCOME to stop by the Church Office to register Monday through Friday 8:00am to 5:00pm or online at www.blessedtrinity.org, click on join us.

BAPTISM: We are pleased to help your family prepare for the special event of your child's entrance into our faith community. To help parents and godparents prepare, a class (English) is held the 2nd Tuesday of each month at 7:30pm in the Community Center and in Spanish the 2nd Saturday of each month at 9:00am at Guadalupana. Parents and Godparents must attend this class prior to scheduling baptism.

MARRIAGES: If you are planning to be married at Blessed Trinity, your preparation process should begin at least four (4) months prior to desired date. We look forward to helping you during your time of engagement and preparation for the vocation of Christian marriage. Call the Church Office for an appointment with one of our priests.

SICK CALLS AND HOSPITAL VISITS: If you or a family member are in a local hospital or homebound and would like to receive Communion or Sacrament of the Sick, please call the Church Office at 629.8092 or Sister Juliet at x3211. When registering at the hospital, put your name on the Catholic List.

STEWARDSHIP BY THE BOOK

In today's Gospel, the disciples suggest that Jesus disperse the crowd so that they might individually seek food and lodging. The miracle of the feeding of the five thousand is Jesus' powerful reminder that when we share our gifts in His name there is always more than enough!

LIVESTREAMING

Please be advised that the Mass is being filmed, broadcast, and/or videotaped, including audio recording. Your attendance at Mass constitutes your consent to these recordings, and to the use of the recordings by the church for public communications, social media, evangelization, and other business or religious purposes. God bless and thank you for attending Mass at Blessed Trinity Catholic Church.

STEWARDSHIP

A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

From the rich Eucharistic themes to be drawn from today’s second reading, one stewardship theme stands out: The Eucharist is Christ’s gift to us. Good stewards are grateful for this gift and realize that no matter their station in life, they are welcome to come to the table and receive the body and blood of Christ. If Jesus could break bread with his betrayer, Judas, his denier, Peter, and the other ten who deserted him, then he will welcome us. Do we truly appreciate what a tremendous gift it is to approach the Lord’s table? Do we realize that the Holy Spirit means to transform us by the gift of Christ’s body and blood?

STEWARD OF THE WEEK

Carol Blackstock

The parish (and adorers) want to thank Carol for using so much of her time and talent organizing and making sure that Jesus is never alone in our Adoration Chapel!

Thank you for being a faithful steward!

New Parishioners:

Bobby & Yolanda Maron

Clay, Sarah & Michael Shanks

Luis, Adriana, Maria & Bernardila Strauch

Baptisms:

Today we observe the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. This beautiful feast celebrates the gift of the Eucharist, which the Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches is the source and summit of our Christian faith. “For in the blessed Eucharist is contained the whole spiritual good of the Church, namely Christ Himself” (CCC paragraph 1324).

The very word, Eucharist, means “thanksgiving” or “gratitude” and so this feast is especially meaningful to all of us who are striving to live as grateful stewards of all God’s blessings to us. Surely the Eucharist is the greatest of all blessings because it is not only from God, it is God — the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of our Lord, Jesus Christ.

Today’s second reading from St. Paul’s letter to the Corinthians reminds us of the depths of love our Lord has shown us in the gift of the Eucharist, recalling Christ’s words at the very first Eucharistic celebration. “The Lord Jesus... took bread, and, after he had given thanks, broke it and said, ‘This is my body that is for you.’” In that moment, and at every celebration of the Mass thereafter, Jesus gives us His very self in an act of complete humility and perfect love. How can we possibly show our gratitude for such a sublime gift?

We can receive the gift of the Eucharist with the greatest possible reverence and love. And, following our Lord’s example, we can give ourselves generously to others in the week ahead.

WORSHIP

JUNE 22, 2025 ~ THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST

God is Good—All the Time

My 60th Anniversary as a priest blew me away. I had, in my head, a plan to quietly celebrate the occasion. God had blessed me all these years with reasonably good health, a joyous and fruit filled faith journey, a journey with countless God moments, and a meaningful day, every day. I deeply know I owe God a whole lot of thanks. That is never ending. Here at Blessed Trinity, I cannot even get my head around the multitude of individuals, groups, ministries, etc. that have made big sacrifices and gone out of their way to thank me. To thank me for a life that is not really a sacrifice in the first place.

I would love to thank each one of you in person. I would have to take a year off to get that done. Since time was short, I only had time to open and read all your great uplifting messages and direct your donations to our sister parish mission fund.

It was inspiring to see all of you at Mass. I know it is vacation time so many could not be present. It was uplifting to see the hall full of excited people. The half hour “show” put on by Colleen and her gang was most enjoyable and obviously a big labor of love.

Thanks. Thanks. Thanks to all of you.

God bless.

Father Pat

Facilities Calendars

It’s that time of year again to submit your calendar request for meeting locations. All ministries and organizations need to submit a calendar for July—December 2025 indicating the name of the ministry, the facility requested, starting and ending times and name and phone number of the contact person making the request. Calendars will be available in the church office. Please return the completed calendars to the church office, attention Melinda Gunn.

Meet Our New Seminarian

Hello, I am César Colón, a seminarian for the Diocese of Orlando assigned to Blessed Trinity over the summer. I was born in Puerto Rico, and moved to Orlando when I was 11. I just finished my first year of seminary, and am excited to get to know and serve this community! One thing that the Lord has put in my heart over this year has been to focus on how I can serve Him and be faithful to Him right now, in the present moment. Our life is like a string of present moments, and if we can fill those present moments with love for the Lord and for our brothers and sisters, we’ll end up with a beautiful chain full of grace to offer up to Him (through the hands of our Blessed Mother) at the end of our journey. I look forward to meeting you all, to learning from you, and to serving with and for you! God bless you!

Sunday, June 22nd—After the Life Teen Mass, head on over to the Blessed Trinity soccer field where we will have dinner, and a night of fun water games. Dress appropriately, prepare to get soaked, and bring water guns if you have them. You won't want to miss WATER WARS!

Sunday, June 29th— Life Teen is going to the Steubenville Orlando Conference, and there will not be any Life Night after the Life Teen Mass on Sunday. Please pray for our students and adults who are hopefully experiencing the light of Jesus Christ in new ways!

Pope Quote

Pope Paul VI addressed the 1st International Conference on the Charismatic Renewal in 1975. In closing, he said:

“Have we forgotten the Holy Spirit? Certainly not! We want him, we honor him, and we love him. And you with your devotion, your fervor, your wish to live in the Spirit: this should be. It ought to rejuvenate the world, give it back a spirituality, a soul, a religious thought; it ought to reopen the world's closed lips to prayer and open its mouth to song, to joy, to hymns, and to witnessing. It will be very fortunate for our time and for our brothers that there should be a whole generation - your generation of young people - who shout out to the world the glory and greatness of the God of Pentecost.”

Visit BT's charismatic prayer group every Thursday, 7-8:30pm in the Adult Day Care. Find rejuvenation & joy! For info: Richard@ 352-342-2982 or Katy@352-342-2983 or email i2bxtn@gmail.com.

Hospitality at Mass: A Key to Good Stewardship

For many individuals and families alike, summer means travel. And summer travel may mean new visitors to our parish for weekend liturgies. How we greet and provide hospitality for our guests says a lot about our practice of good stewardship.

Providing hospitality to strangers is a hallmark of Christian stewardship. In the Gospel of Matthew good stewards were commended for their hospitality: “I was a stranger and you welcomed me” (Matt. 25:35). Saint Benedict directed his followers to receive guests and travelers as if they were Christ. Extending hospitality is especially important when it comes to welcoming visitors who may be attending Mass at our parish for the first time.

There is a lot of anecdotal evidence suggesting that the ability of a first-time visitor to have a meaningful experience of Christ in the liturgy is directly impacted by the warmth of the welcome extended by the local worshipping community. When people say hello, the worship experience is enhanced. A warm welcome is part of evangelization, work necessary in a church's mission to help people discover or renew their faith in Christ.

How do we treat the unknown person who walks by us in church, or who sits next to us at Mass? Do we ignore them? Talk around them? Look at them and say nothing? Do we take the initiative to greet them, smile, extend a warm handshake?

Remember, we are Christ's ambassadors (2 Corinthians 5:20). Our actions and reactions toward visitors at Mass communicate who we are and who we represent. Let us take time to welcome visitors to our parish this summer. Welcoming gestures, however small, will not only have a positive impact on visitors, they will make us more hospitable ambassadors of Christ.

Perpetual Adoration

The following hours need to be filled:

Sundays: 2:00am - 3:00am

Wednesdays: 1:00am - 2:00am

Fridays: 1:00pm - 2:00pm

Also in need of substitutes, especially between Midnight and 5:00am

Our stewardship way of life here at BT encourages each family to commit one hour a week to the adoration chapel; please prayerfully consider this ministry's needs and if you are unable to serve, please pray that God will send individuals to sustain this core ministry, here at Blessed Trinity.

The Lord looks forward to your visit!

Please see the list of hours, which is in the Vestibule, on the counter near the staircase, that need one more adorer.

For your special hour of praise before the Blessed Sacrament call or email: Carol Blackstock 352-622-7348 or 352-425-8638, carolblackstock@gmail.com.
