STEWARDSHIP BY THE BOOK

Today's reading from Isaiah describes the Israelites bringing their offering to the Lord "in clean vessels." The gift of myself—my patient endurance and fidelity to the will of God—is as important as the monetary gift I offer.

LIVESTREAMING

Please be advised that the Mass is being filmed, broadcast, and/or videotaped, including audio recording. Your attendance at Mass constitutes your consent to these recordings, and to the use of the recordings by the church for public communications, social media, evangelization, and other business or religious purposes. STEWARDSHIP

POTENTIAL

A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

The Gospel reading today starts with a question: “Lord, will only a few people be saved?” Jesus offers only a simple reply: Strive to enter through the narrow gate. Many will try to enter and will not be able. Good stewards know there is only one, narrow gate. Not everything will fit. This narrow gate has no room for our accomplishments. No room for our money. No room for our possessions. No room for anything else but those who’ve been good stewards of the Gospel. We can’t custom build our own gates either. There is only one, narrow gate that happens to be open for a time, but for how long? What is our plan of action to get through that gate?

STEWARDS OF THE WEEK

Luz Segovia & Evelyn Rivera

The parish would like to thank Luz and Evelyn for using their time to clean the church every Monday after all the weekend Masses, we are so grateful!

Thank you for being faithful stewards!

Baptisms:

Leonard Anthony Jennings

Today’s readings show us that it is not enough to be Christ’s disciples in name only. To be a real disciple, we must live for Christ every day and in every aspect of life. This kind of life takes strength and discipline.

Intentionally and consistently offering the Lord the best of our Time, Talent, and Treasure through a stewardship way of life is a form of spiritual discipline. These spiritual disciplines teach us to become ever more aware of God’s constant provision for us and they keep us on the narrow path towards the Kingdom of Heaven. The more we embrace this way of life, the more we can be “trained” by the Lord in the ways of true discipleship. Though difficult, these disciplines become a source of spiritual strength.

Our Lord Himself speaks of the difficult path to the Kingdom of Heaven in today’s Gospel passage from Luke. He is asked, “Lord, will only a few be saved?” Jesus responds, “Strive to enter through the narrow gate, for many, I tell you, will attempt to enter but will not be strong enough.” Showing up for Mass on Sunday while living as if Christ is an afterthought the rest of the week does not make us disciples. What’s more, this approach to our faith is an unjust and unloving response to our good God who has given us all that we have and are.

Jesus does not want us to merely go through the motions of faith. He wants much more from us and for us. He wants to know us deeply and for us to get to know Him so that we become His holy disciples. This is not a burden; it is a privilege. But it does take discipline, the discipline of a stewardship way of life.

Orphans in Uganda

St. Mary’s orphanage that our sister parish in Uganda owns, now has 87 orphans. We have built or are building an added dormitory. The orphans are well taken care of. They have good food and medical care. They all go to one of our local schools. Each orphan gets the same opportunity to get an education and a career. Actually a few have already graduated from college or university.

The cost for us for food and school fees for each orphan is still only $250 per year.

But also we have close to 100 more orphans who are being cared for by relatives and attend one of our village schools. The families cannot afford the school fees. Each of those orphans cost the same amount—$250—per year.

If you are in a position to sponsor an orphan for this year—make your check out to “Blessed Trinity” and mark it for “Uganda Orphans.”

Thanks

Adult Catholic Inquiry Class

The weekly inquiry class begins at 6:30pm on Wednesday, September 3rd in the chapel (cry room) in church.

Any adult (18 & over) can attend. It is for Catholics who need a fresh look at our Catholic faith; for adults who are baptized Catholics but never received confirmation (or 1st communion); for interested adults who are looking into becoming Catholic or who have spouses who are Catholic and they want to learn more about the Catholic faith.

The course is free. You will receive two readable books on the teachings of our faith. You do not need to register in advance. Just come and sign in and check your name off each week.

Father Pat’s 1st

Sacrament Meeting

Fr. Pat’s 1st Sacrament

meeting will be on Sunday, September 7th at 9:55am in the gym.

This is a mandatory meeting for all parents and children that are making their First Holy Communion or Confirmation.

Please try to make it to this first meeting but if you can’t, there will be a make-up meeting on Saturday, September 13th at 9am in the chapel.

Come to Mass—Sign Out

Starting this weekend (Aug. 23/24) all students preparing for First Communion and Confirmation need to pick up a sheet, found under the bulletins, and have the priest or deacon sign it every weekend.

Come to Mass first and then bring your paper to be signed. Give that signed paper to your teacher each week.

This is a very special year of preparation for you and your entire family. If you prepare well then receiving First Communion or Confirmation will make a very positive, spiritual impact on your entire future.

Sunday, August 24th—Blessed Trinity students, friends, and family, you are invited to our next XLT adoration night. Come experience the true presence of Christ in the eucharist as we adore him in worship and praise. Life Teen dinner for students will be on the lawn outside church beforehand (weather permitting), and adoration will begin promptly at 6:45pm.

School Tours In Uganda

Most all of our Catholic schools we have built in 22 villages in our sister parish are in the "bush." Apart from school and church, the families have no means to go beyond that—no transportation, etc.—except when we come once a year when they are exposed to a world beyond their village.

When I was on my annual tour of the village churches and schools this year I quickly realized there was something new a foot. Word had spread from one school to another that an annual school tour might be possible. Each of the 22 schools included in their list of requests, a budget for a school tour for P6 & P7 students. The cost varied from $1,900 to $2,200 per tour. The money would pay the bus and driver, two meals for approximately 75 students and a few teachers and would allow them to visit the River Nile, go to the zoo, and visit Entebbe Airport, etc.

I told them I would present their request to our people at Blessed Trinity Ocala but I could not favor one school above another. If you would like to sponsor a school tour for these students in the bush, for $2,000, it will be a thrill of a life time for them. If you want to name the school that is fine. We will see what results we get and then decide when we can go ahead and fulfill their school tour requests.

Help Bring Triumph of the Heart to Ocala!

We're bringing the inspiring true story of St. Maximilian Kolbe to theaters — and YOU can help make it happen!

This brand-new crowdfunded film will only come to Ocala if we reserve 89 tickets by August 28. No goal reached, no screening — but if we don't reach the goal, your ticket is refunded, or you can choose to bless seminarians, priests, missionaries, and nuns with it.

Target Date & Time: Saturday, September 13 at 7:00 PM-subject to change.
(The theater will confirm once we hit the goal — so the sooner we do, the better!)

How You Can Help:

1. Reserve your ticket today.
2. Share this with friends & family.
3. Donate extra tickets

Let's honor the courage and faith of St. Maximilian Kolbe and inspire others through his story. Together, we can fill the theater!

Blessed Trinity Edge
Middle School Youth Group

Join our email list and register by emailing ocalaedge@gmail.com today!

What is Edge?

Edge is Blessed Trinity Parish’s dynamic youth group for middle schoolers in grades 6-8. We gather twice a month to grow in faith, build friendships, and support each other in living out our Christian values.

At Edge, we explore real-world topics relevant to middle schoolers through a fun and engaging mix of social time, games, thoughtful discussions, and spiritual growth. It’s a space where kids can build a strong foundation during a time when peer pressure and temptation often makes the right choice the hard choice.

Who Can Join?

Edge is open to all 6-8th grade students, regardless of the school or church they attend. Edge is not a replacement for religious education, but a tool to help build upon the values taught in church and to help develop the skills needed to identify the ways to use those values in real world situations.
