STEWARDSHIP BY THE BOOK

Jesus urges us to be rich in what matters to God. The psalmist warns us against hardening our hearts. Are our hearts open to what really matters?

LIVESTREAMING

Please be advised that the Mass is being filmed, broadcast, and/or videotaped, including audio recording. Your attendance at Mass constitutes your consent to these recordings, and to the use of the recordings by the church for public communications, social media, evangelization, and other business or religious purposes. God bless and thank you for attending Mass at Blessed Trinity Catholic Church.

Ministry of the Week

Religious Education

This ministry exists to educate children kindergarten through eighth grade in the fundamentals of the Catholic faith and traditions of the church.

STEWARDSHIP

POTENTIAL

A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

In today’s Gospel, Jesus offers a warning to those who pursue leisure and pleasure as their goal in life without concern for the poor and less fortunate. He tells the parable of the wealthy landowner who, upon yielding an exceptionally profitable harvest one year, determines that he will live the rest of his days in relaxation; to eat, drink and be merry. God calls the miser a “fool” and lets him know that his greed and self-indulgence will not bring him the security he seeks. Good stewards acknowledge that the money and possessions entrusted to them are to be used to further the mission of Jesus Christ. This week let us reflect on our own daily consumption habits. Do we spend money on articles that make us better ambassadors of Christ? Does our personal lifestyle bring “good news to the poor” (Luke 4:18)?

STEWARDS OF THE WEEK

Ladies of CCW & CRHP

The Gift Shop would like to thank Janet, Eleanor, Barbara, Joan, Annette, Dandrienne, Carol, Patti Rosemarie and Fran for helping with our inventory counts. Ladies we appreciate your time, talent and friendship!

Thank you for being faithful stewards!

New Parishioners:

Baptisms:

Dominic Joseph Seeber
Infinite Brielle Tate

Today’s Gospel passage comes as a pat on the back from Heaven for all of us striving to live a stewardship way of life. It reminds us why we live the way we do and why we make the choices we make. Let’s face it, if we truly embrace this way of life, there will be people who find our choices — based on serving God and others — downright foolish. But let’s see what God thinks. Spoiler alert: turns out Christian stewards are not the fools!

In this passage, Jesus makes it clear that life is not about “stuff” as he tells the parable of the wealthy businessman who thought he had everything figured out. The man had such an abundance of stuff that he didn’t have room to store it all. So, thinking of earthly things and not on what is above, he decided to build a bigger place to store all that stuff. Patting himself on the back, he thought about what good times he would have in the years ahead. But Jesus tells us that day would turn out to be the man’s last day on the earth. And he had spent it thinking only of himself. How foolish!

Don’t be ashamed of living differently from the people around you. Be confident as you set priorities based on what is above. You are wise in God’s eyes, Christian steward. And you will be rich in what matters most.

2025-2026 Classes

Registration is now open for the coming year which begins on August 17th. Forms are available at the back of the church on weekends or from the parish office during the week. They can also be requested by email from avanegas@blessedtrinity.org Registration ends August 12th, 2025

WORSHIP

AUGUST 3, 2025 ~ EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

BLOOD DRIVE UPDATE

Our Blood Drive on July 20th had a total of 12 donors—that means you helped save 30 lives! Thank you!

Keep an eye out in the bulletin for our next drive in September!

Lord Jesus Christ,

As we begin to shift our thoughts from summer schedules to the anticipated demands of autumn, teach us to recognize you, and help us follow you amidst our busy lives.

Open the Scriptures to us... that we may know you, see you, hear you – in the voices of friends and family, in the ministries of our parish, in the proclamation of the Word, and in the Breaking of the Bread.

Teach us to be good stewards, that we may use your gifts wisely and care for all those you place in our path.

Encourage us when we are overwhelmed. Strengthen us when we are frightened. Challenge us when we are complacent.

Help us make our August transition a time of spiritual renewal, hope and action: to proclaim the Gospel in our words and in our deeds.

Amen.

Sunday, August 3rd—No Life Night but join us for 5:00pm Mass with your families.

Sunday, August 10th— No Life Night but join us for 5:00pm Mass with your families and have a great first day of school on Monday!

PEACE & SOCIAL JUSTICE

The majority of small family farmers in Africa, Asia, Palestine, and South America producing coffee, tea, cocoa, and olive oil are living in poverty. They don't have the money or the means necessary to transport their crop to their local market. They must rely on local middlemen to buy their crops from them. Forced to sell at rock bottom prices with no means of income, they get stuck in a cycle of dependency that becomes impossible to break. FAIR TRADE breaks this dependency by purchasing their products directly through farmer cooperatives eliminating the local middlemen, and exporters. This guarantees the farmers a fair profit. We are selling FAIR TRADE coffee, tea, cocoa and olive oil next weekend. Please help these farmers, their families, and their employees by purchasing these products. Thank you.

Stewardship Saint for August

St. Teresa Benedicta of the Cross (Edith Stein)

Edith Stein was born in 1891 to a Jewish family living in Breslau, Germany. From a very young age she was intellectually curious and loved to learn. She rejected her family's Jewish piety and even God because her observation was that people acted as though they did not believe in God. She was a brilliant university student and graduated summa cum laude with a doctoral degree in philosophy. She became the assistant to one of the most influential philosophers of the 20th century, Edmund Husserl, who recognized and admired her intellectual gifts.

In 1921 Edith had a conversion experience. At age 30, she began reading the autobiography of St. Teresa of Avila in a friend's library and couldn't put it down. "This is the truth!" she exclaimed. She converted to Catholicism and was baptized on New Year's Day, 1922.

Edith soon became well regarded as a Catholic philosopher and author. She left her university appointment as Husserl's assistant and took a position teaching at a Dominican college for women teachers in Speyer, Germany. While there, she studied the philosophy of St. Thomas Aquinas and published the first German translation of his treatise The Truth. She also lectured widely to Catholic women's groups throughout Europe.

As the persecution of Jews in Germany intensified in the late 30's, Sister Teresa Benedicta was taken out of the country. On New Year's Eve 1938, she secretly crossed the border into the Netherlands where she was welcomed by the Carmelite community at Echt.

The German Army invaded the Netherlands in 1940 and Sister Teresa's situation would again become perilous. She and her sister Rosa, also a Catholic convert, were eventually arrested and transported by cattle train to Auschwitz, where they perished in a gas chamber on August 9, 1942.

In his homily at the time of her canonization in 1998, St. John Paul II said: "St. Teresa Benedicta of the Cross says to us all: 'Do not accept anything as the truth if it lacks love. And do not accept anything as love which lacks truth!'"

Perpetual Adoration

The following hours need to be filled:

Wednesdays: 1:00am - 2:00am

Thursdays: Midnight - Fridays: 1:00am

Fridays: 6:00pm - 7:00pm

Saturdays: 1:00pm - 2:00pm

Also in need of substitutes, especially between Midnight and 5:00am

Our stewardship way of life here at BT encourages each family to commit one hour a week to the adoration chapel; please prayerfully consider this ministry's needs and if you are unable to serve, please pray that God will send individuals to sustain this core ministry, here at Blessed Trinity.

The Lord looks forward to your visit!

Please see the list of hours, which is in the Vestibule, on the counter near the staircase, that need one more adorer.

For your special hour of praise before the Blessed Sacrament call or email: Carol Blackstock 352-622-7348 or 352-425-8638, carolblackstock@gmail.com.

"People ask me: 'What will convert America and save the world?' My answer is prayer. What we need is for every parish to come before Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament in holy hours of prayer." - St. Mother Teresa

This year’s annual Orlando Catholic Charismatic Conference is your opportunity for a Personal Pentecost!

Come and be Renewed in the Holy Spirit with inspiring talks by Bishop Peter Smith, Deacon Larry Oney and Anne Trufant plus Mass, Confession, Praise and Worship, Adoration, a Youth Track and a Healing Service.

Save the date now: Sept. 19-21, Fri. 7pm to Sun. 1pm. Go to OrlandoCharismatic.com for details.

Collection for the Church in Latin America

Next week we will take up the collection for the Church in Latin America. For many in Latin America and the Caribbean, a rising secular culture, difficult rural terrain, and a shortage of ministers all present obstacles to practicing the faith. Your support for the collection provides lay leadership training, catechesis, priestly and religious formation, and other programs to share our Catholic faith with those who long to hear the Good News of Christ.

Essay Contest

Marion Council 5960 Knights of Columbus invites all high school aged members of Blessed Trinity Parish to participate in our 2025 Catholic Citizenship Essay Contest. Students must submit an essay of between 500 and 750 words on the following theme:

Out of the 267 popes that have led the Catholic church, who are your three favorites and why?

Cash prizes will be awarded to the top essay at each grade level, and the winning essays will be submitted to the district level competition for consideration. Entry forms with directions will be available at Life Teen meetings or at the parish office during the week from Lydia Ross. Essays are due September 30th and strict adherence to the directions is required.

Questions can be directed to contest chairman Paul Soucy at 352.425.6170.
