STEWARDSHIP BY THE BOOK

When will I have given enough—of my income, of my time, of my talents? Today's Gospel suggests that only total stewardship will do: "When you have done all you have been commanded to do, say 'We are useless servants. We have done no more than our duty.'"

LIVESTREAMING

Please be advised that the Mass is being filmed, broadcast, and/or videotaped, including audio recording. Your attendance at Mass constitutes your consent to these recordings, and to the use of the recordings by the church for public communications, social media, evangelization, and other business or religious purposes. God bless and thank you for attending Mass at Blessed Trinity Catholic Church.

STEWARDSHIP

POTENTIAL

A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

From today’s second reading, we are made to realize, like Timothy, that Christ’s call to follow him is meant for us all. Good stewards realize they have everything necessary to live for Christ. “Stir up the fire that is already burning inside you.” Another way to express this thought in the vocabulary of stewardship is: “Use your gifts now! Serve the Lord now! Get involved now! God put the fire inside you but you have to stir up the flame! Let it burn!” Everyone can give witness to Christ’s presence in the world, and most of us can do more than one thing for the Lord. How exactly do you “stir the flame” God’s unique gifts you hold within you?

STEWARD OF THE WEEK

Savannah Garrett

Life Teen would like to thank Savannah for spending so much of her time helping with Life Teen. The youth appreciate you!

Thank you for being a faithful steward!

New Parishioners:

Chris & Sari Gonzales

Adriana Gonzalez & Alejandro Oropeza

Baptisms:

Ava Francisca Rosales

Our readings today show us that living a stewardship way of life, that is, a life focused on serving God and His Kingdom, is not easy. They also show us that our lives belong to God, not to us, and that God will indeed bring about the fulfillment of His kingdom. We just need to have faith that He can do it and commit to our small part in His grand design. This is both our privilege and responsibility as Christian stewards.

Jesus makes this privilege and responsibility clear in today’s Gospel passage from Luke. When the apostles ask the Lord to increase their faith, He tells them that even a mustard seed-sized faith is all that is needed to move mountains (because it is God who does the heavy lifting). We need only take the tiniest step forward, and He will do the rest.

But living our lives in His service is also very much our responsibility, as Jesus explains through the parable of the unprofitable servant later in this passage. Our Lord describes a scene in which a servant has just come in from tending to the master’s affairs and asks whether it would be reasonable for the master to begin waiting on his servant. Of course, it would not be reasonable! The servant would be expected to continue to serve his master until he has completed the work the master has given him that day. Jesus says we should have this same attitude before God.

The time, talents, and treasure entrusted to us are all God’s. Our very lives belong to Him. Whatever we do on God’s behalf with our lives and our gifts is simply our God-given responsibility.

The stewardship way of life makes the privilege and responsibility of serving Christ and His kingdom a reality.

A STEWARDSHIP PRAYER for October

Gracious and Loving God

We give you thanks
for this time of year;
a time of transformation
that reveals the awe-inspiring gift of your creation.

Teach us how to be good stewards
of all the gifts
you have given us;
and show us how
we may share
those gifts generously, especially with those most in need
of your loving care.

Give us the strength
to be good stewards
of the Gospel, to love others as we
love ourselves,
and to follow in your Son’s footsteps, until we find our way home to you.

We pray this through your Son,
Jesus Christ,
Who lives and reigns with you
and the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever.

Amen

Each year during the month of November, every parishioner has a new opportunity to renew their commitment to God giving Him first place with their time, talent and treasure.

New stewardship materials are mailed out to each family toward the end of October.

The spirituality of the stewardship way of life is included in the homily at all Masses the first weekend of November. Also, we have a short witness talk by one of our parishioners at each Mass.

The second weekend of November we have a new parish video shown at all Masses during the homily time. And also we have another short witness talk at each Mass.

We have had new witness speakers for over 30 years—eight each year.

Would you like to volunteer to be a witness speaker or do you want to suggest (secretly) a person that we could ask to be a witness speaker?

Witness speakers have a lot of great Christian influence.

Call Father Pat if you want to volunteer.

STEWARDSHIP AND THE FAMILY

We refer to the family as the “domestic Church.” It is a phrase the Second Vatican Council brought forth from the writings of the early Church fathers and describes family life as the center of Catholic spirituality and faith. Those of us who live in a modern family, though, can attest to the incredible challenges of creating a family life that fully lives up to that image of “domestic Church” especially in the autumn of each year.

Busy schedules can make family members feel as though they live as ships passing in the night. Job demands, class schedules, school events, church groups, business trips, commute times, sports—the list goes on. Experts tell us the family dinner, a nightly event years ago, is an increasingly rare occurrence, and even when families are together under one roof, smart phones, televisions, and every imaginable screen demanding their attention keep them isolated from each other in the same house, even the same room.

What can we do to make sacred the “domestic Church” within our homes? Is your home blessed by a priest or deacon? Do you have a crucifix hung-up in a prominent place? What can we do to exercise better stewardship of our families? How about starting with the family meal? Schedule a big breakfast or brunch on Sunday after Mass. Make it a family event from beginning through clean-up. Keep a large, visible calendar on which everyone’s schedule is noted, so that a family dinner can be planned and prioritized. That meal should be a social occasion, not the time to check if Bobby passed his science test or scold Suzy because she wouldn’t get out of bed that morning. It is a time for pleasant conversation, no electronic devices permitted. And don’t worry if it’s not roast beef—pizza out of a box and a salad can be just as fun.

Then, create a plan to work on family prayer time. Besides going to Sunday Mass together, how about a time in the evening when everyone stops what they’re doing and gathers for just a few moments before bedtime for prayer? Perhaps use commute times—the trip to the soccer field or the morning drive to school—to share a brief and heartfelt prayer with your children. Do your children see you pray with Scripture? Let children see you make prayer a priority. Saint John Paul II stressed the importance of prayer as a family. “Prayer makes the Son of God present among us,” he wrote.

What else might you do to elevate the sacredness of your own domestic Church? Do your children see you honor special time with your spouse? Do you make quality time with each child individually? Do you listen to them when they speak, or are you checking your mobile phone texts as they talk? Communicate the idea that family comes first and they will catch on. As a steward, prioritize your own sense of family stewardship. If our children grow up with the idea that “church” is indelibly linked to “family,” their faith will grow stronger.

Saints and Sweets

Life Teen is proud to present “Saints & Sweets Luminary Walk” on October 25, from 6:30-8:00pm on the Blessed Trinity School Soccer Field.

Walk with your family or friends as you learn about the lives of the Saints. Youth dressed as Saints will share a Saint story as well as candy at each station. Kids are invited to dress up as Saints or use their Halloween costumes.

DONATE CANDY: Candy donations help make the night even sweeter! Please deliver candy to the church office, marked “Saints & Sweets.”

VOLUNTEERS: Many hands will be needed to make this event a success! We are looking for ten enthusiastic students (grades 6-12) willing to dress up and share a saint story with the community as they walk through our candlelit walkway. A script will be provided as well as any costume materials the student might need. We are also looking for volunteers to help set up, take down, and welcome people into the walk in an orderly fashion. For more information on the specifics of how you can get involved, contact Lydia Ross at lross@blessedtrinity.org

PEACE & SOCIAL JUSTICE

Why should you buy Fair Trade coffee, tea, cocoa and olive oil we sell the second week after Mass each month? Because the products are organic, meaning they restore and preserve our planet. Organic farming improves forest cover and habitat for migratory birds and other wildlife through shade farming, as well as, preserves local river quality, improves the soil and prevents erosion, all without the use of toxic and persistent pesticides. We will be selling Fair Trade coffee, tea, cocoa and olive oil after Mass next weekend.

BECOME AN ALTAR SERVER Training Series

Join our Altar Server Ministry—a wonderful opportunity to grow in faith, learn the Mass in detail, and serve at the Altar of Our Lord.

Altar servers typically serve 1–2 Masses per month, with extra opportunities during special seasons like Christmas and Easter. Bonus: 8th graders and high school students can earn service hours while serving the Church!

First Night – Monday, October 6

We’ll begin with a short Parent & Student Meeting in the church at 5:30 PM, followed immediately by the first training session. We’d love to have one or two parents present during each session (fingerprinting required). Even if you can only help one night, please let us know!

Important:

- Space is limited to 12 students.
