In last week’s readings, we were encouraged to remain persistent and constant in our prayer life. Today, we focus on the proper attitude of a steward at prayer.

In the Gospel passage from Luke, Jesus illustrates the humble attitude we must have as we approach God in prayer through a parable of two praying men. One is a Pharisee, a man with respected status, theological training, and all the right credentials. He marches right up to the front of the temple to speak a prayer “to himself,” thanking God for making him just a little bit superior to everyone else!

The other man is a tax collector, known by those of his day to be a cheater and a sell-out to his fellow Jews. In contrast to the Pharisee, he stands near the back and cries out to God in a simple and honest way: “Be merciful to me a sinner.”

Jesus tells us that it is the tax collector and not the Pharisee who leaves the temple justified. Why?

The Pharisee was full of self as he approached God. He felt no real need for God as he rattled off his resume of good works and spiritual practices. He was simply going through the motions of prayer. His lack of humility prevented him from entering into a real dialogue with the Father. He was not transformed by his time of prayer because he was so full of himself that He left God no space to enter in.

The tax collector, by contrast, emptied himself as he approached God. He recognized who he truly was (a sinner) and asked simply for mercy, leaving all the rest up to God. This is the kind of attitude that God can work with! This is how a good steward prays — with trust, with complete openness to God’s will, with a listening mind and heart, ready to serve as God leads.

ALL FOR THE GLORY OF GOD

15th August, 2025

Dear sponsors

The Grace and Love of God to you all

On behalf of Trinity Catholic High School family. I wish to extend our sincere gratitude to you all for the numerous donations and sponsorships to our school and individual students.

Your love, faith, generosity, dedication and commitment have made a remarkable difference in our lives. The resources and opportunities provided to us through your sponsorships have greatly transformed our lives and Institution. Your generosity has inspired our staff and students, motivated us to strive for excellence and has allowed us to engage more actively with our communities.

Your unwavering support serves as a beacon of hope inspiring us as a family of Trinity Catholic High School and our relatives and benefactors. We are incredibly very grateful for your partnership.

Your generosity has truly offered a visible and tangible expression of the church's love for the vulnerable and also a true manifestation of the open hearts to the movement of the Holy Spirit!

Once again, thank you for your Invaluable support. On our part, we promise to always keep you in our daily prayers. We look forward to continued collaboration in the service of God's creation and we pray for God's continued blessings up on you, your families and parish community.

All for the Glory of God

Thank you

Yours faithfully in Christ

SSENYONYI K. PATRICK

A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

There is an interesting twist we find in today's gospel when we hear Jesus' parable of the Pharisee and the tax collector praying in the temple. The Pharisee is "praying to himself." It doesn't mean he was praying silently. It seems to mean something a lot more troubling, that he is praying to himself; that God is not his prayer's intended audience. The words of the Pharisee are very much centered on himself: he makes claims about his character. He highlights his own admirable activities. Good stewards of their prayer lives know that a prayer of praise and thanksgiving should focus on the goodness of God. Do your prayers of thanksgiving always stay focused on God's unfathomable, immeasurable goodness and generosity?

CHARISMATIC RENEWAL

---What's In a Name?

Charismatic: a divinely conferred gift or power. Renewal: to make like new: restore to freshness, vigor, or perfection. The Charismatic Renewal is a gift from God to today's Church, to bring Restoration & Freshness. It is not a movement started by men. It is simply God's invitation to rediscover our true identity as: Children Of The Father; as Witnesses Of Christ; & Vessels Of The Holy Spirit... We are branches that bear the fruit of Blessed Trinity! By embracing the gift of His Spirit, we find our lives being lived out with His Power & His Love. Our natural talents produce supernatural results; our ordinary limits when yoked to the Holy Spirit yields extra-ordinary fruit! This isn't just for saints of history, this is for all of us ordinary, everyday Catholics committed to His Extraordinary Path! ...May we grow in faith together!

Blessed Trinity's Charismatic Prayer Group meets every Thur, 7-8:30pm, in the Elder Care center. Call Richard Swiderski, 352-342-2982, for info.

BIBLE STUDY

Please join us this morning after mass for the next Bible Study of the book of Matthew. We will be meeting at the parish hall classroom.

October 26, 2025 No meeting this date.

Cemetery Masses

Sunday, November 2 at 2:30pm at our three local cemeteries (Highlands, Forest Lawn, Good Shepherd) there will be Masses celebrated in memory of our family and friends who have died.
