A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

As the prophet Isaiah proclaims in the first reading, the Lord continues to remind us that we are his servants. Imagine the Lord speaking these words to you personally: "You are my servant. Through you I show my glory. I formed you as my servant from your mother's womb. I will make you a light so that you may shine the light of my salvation everywhere you go, and reveal my glory to everyone you encounter. I will give you the strength to do this. I will give you confidence. Heed my words, for I have spoken to you." What would your response be to the Lord? Would it be different from the response you give the Lord now?

STEWARDS OF THE WEEK

Bereavement Reception Ministry

The parish would like to thank all the ladies who help with our funeral receptions. You do a wonderful job and the families are very appreciative!

Thank you for being faithful stewards!

New Parishioners:

Baptisms:

Today's readings provide clear and inspiring reminders of the most fundamental aspect of our identity — that of servants of our most high and holy God, His modern-day disciples, and stewards.

John the Baptist recognized the holiness of Jesus and the response due to Him when he encountered Christ in person on the day they met at the Jordan River. His response, which we read in our Gospel passage from St. John was, "Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world... He is the one of whom I said, 'A man is coming after me who ranks ahead of me because he existed before me.'"

What a powerful description of our Lord and the place He should rightfully have in each of our lives. He is truly our Savior, the only one who can free us from our sinfulness. We are utterly and completely dependent on His power, love, and mercy. Therefore, He truly does "rank ahead" of us; he deserves to be first, above all other priorities and plans in our lives. Let us examine our daily lives and encourage our children to do the same.

Does the way I spend my time reflect that God comes first? Do prayer and weekly Mass, regular confession, and time with my family "rank ahead" of everything else on my calendar? Do I use my talents, skills, and energy to serve my family, parish and community in thanksgiving and recognition that God's kingdom ranks ahead of any other goals or ambitions? Do I spend my money and use my material possessions to glorify God?

Challenge questions, to be sure. But questions worthy of our high calling as Christian stewards offered a glorious mission in service of our Lord and His kingdom. What will our response be?

WORSHIP

JANUARY 18, 2026 ~ SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Our Catholic Appeal

This year's parish assessment is: $331,773.

We will be presenting Bishop Noonan's annual homily and message on this year's Catholic Appeal on the weekend of February 14/15 at all the Masses.

Many of you, since you give every year, will have received your annual pledge materials before then in the mail.

Everyone's financial circumstances are different.

We still give out a guideline as you pray over and decide your pledge or donation for OCA this year. The guideline is 1% of your annual gross income.

We really need everyone to pray over their commitment this year since our assessment is much, much higher than last year.

You can make a pledge and pay it off over the year or you can give a one-time donation if that suits your finances better.

All you have to do is please God with your response. Your response is confidential.

Thanks—Fr. Pat

Dear Fr. Patrick and the Blessed Trinity Community

As we celebrate the holy season of the Nativity of our Lord Jesus Christ, I humbly and prayerfully extend my heartfelt Christmas greetings to you, together with best wishes for a grace-filled and fruitful New Year 2026.

With profound gratitude, we thank God for the many ways He has worked through you to transform the Nalweyo community, especially in nurturing faith, deepening spiritual life, and strengthening the bonds of Christian fellowship. Through your prayers, generosity, and commitment to the Gospel, Christ has truly been made present among us, and lives have been touched and renewed.

May the Infant Jesus, born for our salvation, abundantly reward your selfless service. May the Holy Spirit continue to guide your mission, renew your strength, and lead you even deeper in love and faithfulness. Through the loving intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary and the saints, may the Lord bless and protect you always.

As we enter the New Year, may God's peace dwell in your hearts, and may His grace continue to flow through you to all whom you serve.

With prayers of thanksgiving and Christmas blessings.
