Today we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity — the central mystery of our faith.

Though the Trinity is a profound mystery, it also reveals something very practical for us as Christian stewards. The Trinity is a communion of Persons who give themselves completely to one another. This self-giving love is at the heart of the stewardship way of life.

In our Gospel, we hear, "God so loved the world that he gave his only Son." God gives Himself to us out of love. We are called to respond in the same way — by giving ourselves back to Him and to others.

The more we give of ourselves in love, the more we experience "the grace of the Lord, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit" within us.

This Triune God invites us into a deeper relationship with Him — one that grows as we live a life of gratitude and self-gift through the stewardship way of life.

STEWARDSHIP BY THE BOOK

The Gospel today is sometimes called "the Gospel in miniature" because it so concisely sums up the Gospel message. In even more condensed form, "God loved...God gave..." is the paradigm for stewardship—we give because we love.

The US to be consecrated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus

In honor of the 250th anniversary of the US, the bishops of the United States have decided to consecrate our nation to the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

At a special Mass at St. James Cathedral on June 12th at 7pm, Bishop Noonan plans to consecrate the diocese of Orlando to the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

If you are able to attend that Mass, you are cordially invited.

To highlight this consecration of our country to the Sacred Heart, we are going to have a nine day Novena to the Sacred Heart here at Blessed Trinity from June 3 to June 11. It will be held each day in church at 6:30pm, except for Saturday June 6 when it has to be delayed to 7:30pm because of the 6pm Mass. Also, for those who can't attend in Orlando, we will be celebrating Mass on Friday June 12 at 6:30pm at Blessed Trinity.

We will expose the Blessed Sacrament, pray one rosary with a different daily devotion praying through such saints or spiritual leaders as Pope Francis, Pope Leo, St. John Henry Newman, St. Faustina, Fr. Jules Chevalier, St. Alphonsus Liguori, Blessed Miguel Pro, SJ, St. Therese Lisieux— followed by the litany of the Sacred heart and benediction.

You are all welcome to attend.

CONGRATULATIONS!

These weeks we are happy and proud of all our graduates—from various colleges and universities, from Trinity Catholic High School and our public High Schools, from Blessed Trinity Grade School and our public Grade Schools as well as Angles in Arms.

Thanks to all your parents for their many sacrifices, thanks to all the teachers for your inspiring work and, or course, thanks to God for all His gifts. Only though God is all this possible.

 LIFE TEEN

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 10
6:15-8PM (AFTER 5:30PM DAILY MASS)

A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT

In today's second reading Saint Paul's final appeal is a call for unity. God created that unity. Good stewards who share Christ's life in the Eucharist belong to each other, just as God in the three persons of Father, Son and Holy Spirit enjoy unity. We are an intimate part of God's divine bond, God's "family". Saint Paul maintains that we ought to act that way. In the church there is a bond of family, yet plenty of room for variety. Christian stewards use their uniquely varied gifts to live a Trinitarian faith, in unity, promoting Christ's peace and justice. How do we promote unity in our parish?

Stewardship Saint for May

Saint Luis Batiz Saenz

Saint Luis Batiz Saenz was a Mexican Catholic priest who suffered martyrdom at the beginning of the Mexican uprising against the anti-Catholic regime of Plutarco Elias Calles.

Luis was born in 1870 in San Miguel del Mezquital, Zacatecas, then in the Archdiocese of Durango. He was said to have been a devout, prayerful, young boy. At age 12 he entered a minor seminary in the archdiocese. He continued his path to the priesthood and was ordained on January 1, 1894. Soon thereafter, Father Luis gained popularity as a confessor and spiritual adviser and accepted an appointment to be the spiritual director of the seminary where he studied. He also had assignments as a parish priest and became pastor of San Pedro parish in Chalchihuites, Zacatecas.

Father Luis was a member of the Knights of Columbus Council 2367 and employed its organizational model to evangelize and call parishioners of all ages to service in the parish and the community. He also established catholic elementary schools and technical training programs to encourage skill development among the local populace.

Promoting a love for the eucharist was said to be Father Luis' first pastoral priority, however, and he spent a great deal of his time integrating the theology of the eucharist in his religious education of children and his adult faith formation classes. He encouraged adoration before the Blessed Sacrament.

In 1926, Mexican president Plutarco Elias Calles, an atheist who was determined to eradicate Catholicism from Mexico, enacted several laws to enforce the anti-Catholic articles of the 1917 Mexican Constitution. He severely restricted the activities of the church and especially its priests. One such law prohibited public displays of piety and devotion. Another outlawed the wearing of clerical apparel by priests outside of church buildings.

On August 14, in the Zacatecas town of Chalchihuites, government agents arrested Father Luis on suspicion of violating the "Calles Laws," took him to an isolated spot and shot him to death along with three young men belonging to the Mexican Association of Catholic Youths. The murders were among numerous assassinations that ignited reprisals and counter reprisals. The resulting "Cristeros War" would exact a heavy toll on Mexico's priests, where approximately 4,000 of them were either executed, murdered or expelled from the country. By 1934 there were less than 350 priests in all of Mexico.

In the Jubilee year of 2000, Saint John Paul II canonized Father Luis Batiz Saenz along with 24 other Mexicans, mostly priests, who suffered martyrdom at the hands of the Mexican federal authorities during the Cristeros War.

May 25 is the feast day of Saint Luis Batiz Saenz.
